I do not believe I received a webex invitation; however, the DCA is not participating in this docket.

Thank you,
 Roger

Subject: RE: DOCKET NO. 2019-130-E -- State Update

Dear Counsel:

In follow up to Attorney Cooper's email dated September 9th at 10:55 a.m. (a copy is below), I am following up and requesting a status update in this matter. Thank you.

In anticipation of the Commission proceeding in this matter unless otherwise informed by the parties, if you have not received your WebEx invitation, please advise and Mr. Erskine is also copied on this email (Randy.Erskine@psc.sc.gov).

With regard to the Order of the Proceeding or Oral Argument tomorrow, the moving party shall present or make argument first, followed by the other parties, and then the SC Department of Consumer Affairs and the Office of Regulatory Staff. The moving party is typically allowed within Commission discretion to provide a Reply (if needed or requested).

I hope that this helps in your preparations for tomorrow. If you have any other information or materials to provide the Commission, please do not hesitate to proceed to file them in the DMS and provide a copy to all counsel or parties of record prior to the Oral Argument but not later than 9:00 a.m. for the Oral Argument beginning at 10:00 a.m.

With kind regards,

Jo Anne Wessinger Hill

JoAnne and Josh:

Weston and I are working hard to reach a settlement. While we do not have a settlement in hand yet, we are close. We hope to be able to make a filing as early as this afternoon notifying the Commission and staff that a settlement has been reached and as a result requesting to cancel the Friday hearing. In the interim, we wanted to provide this informal update to you.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Thank you for your help in the matter,

Ashley
